Birthday Song

For you on your special day,
We take this time to say:
Happy birthday; may God bless you!
Happy birthday to you!

The purpose of a battery is to transfer stored energy into something else. When a battery goes flat it serves no functional purpose unless it can be recharged from another power source to be used over and over again.

As Christians, we are like batteries. We may have a little power stored but if we are not recharged regularly we will soon be drained. Christians are energy dependent – God is the energy source. He waits for us to come to Him to recharge our spiritual batteries so we have the power to continue our daily walk. When we go directly to God to be invigorated instead of looking to others for a boost we tap into an endless power supply. Eventually, we will even have extra energy to pass on to the discouraged or the ‘spiritually dead’. This is when God brings ‘spiritually flat’ people into our lives to gracefully recharge. Often, these people need a lot of attention and encouragement. They are frequently rude, demanding, obnoxious and ungrateful. They take much of our energy and give little or none back in return.

If we rely on our own (human) power, it won't be long before people completely drain us. Then, just like the flat battery, we will no longer serve any functional purpose. The only way we can stop other people and everyday life from exhausting us is to continually recharge our batteries from the all-powerful Energy Giver (God). If we tap into the divine spring, we will have an endless supply of encouragement and grace for those who have not yet plugged into that omnipotent source of power. (Isaiah 40:31)

We didn't want to go to church on Sunday, but Mom said we had to. Although it was a sunny day, we didn't talk on the way. Mom started to sing, but no one joined in and she only sang one verse. At church we had a missionary speaker. He talked about how churches in Africa made buildings out of sun-dried bricks, but they need money to buy roofs. He said $100 would put a roof on a church. The minister said, "Can't we all sacrifice to help these poor people?"

We looked at each other and smiled for the first time in a week. Mom reached into her purse and pulled out the envelope. She passed it to Darlene. Darlene gave it to me, and I handed it to Ocy. Ocy put it in the offering plate. When the offering was counted, the minister announced that it was a little over $100. The missionary was excited. He hadn't expected such a large offering from our small church. He said, "You must have some rich people in this church."

Suddenly it struck us! We had given $87 of that "little over $100." We were the rich family in the church! Hadn't the missionary said so? Deep down, I knew that we were actually a rich family.

The Hand That Rocks the Cradle

They say that man is mighty;
 He governs land and see.
 He wields a might scepter
 O'er lower powers than he.
 But mightier power and stronger
 Man from his throne has hurled,
 For the hand that rocks the cradle
 Is the hand that rules the world

Do You Know The Christ Of Christmas?

Words & Music by John W. Peterson c. 1959

Morning Offertory played by Bonnie Cornell

Vs. 1:

With Christ-mas now re-turn-ing, The tree lights bright-ly burn-ing,
And all a-round are songs of joy and cheer;
But 'mid the car-ol sing-ing, And church-bells merri-ly ring-ing,
There is a search-ing ques-tion you should hear.

Chorus:

Do you know the Christ of Christ-mas? --
Or is Christ --- just a mys-ter-y? --
Do you know the Christ of Christ-mas? --
Have you met Him at Cal-va-ry? --
You oft have heard the man-ger sto-ry --
How Je-sus came to earth from Glo-ry, --
But do you know the Christ of Christ-mas? --
Your Sav-iour and Lord is He?

Vs. 2:

We oft for-get the rea-son We keep the Christ-mas sea-son,
So man-y things have en-tered in of late;
But we should e'er re-mem-ber That in this glad De-cem-ber,
It is the Sav-ior's birth we cel-e-brate.

Chorus:

Do you know the Christ of Christ-mas? --
Or is Christ just a mys-ter-y? ---
Do you know the Christ of Christ-mas? --
Have you met Him at Cal-va-ry? --
You oft have heard the man-ger sto-ry --
How Je-sus came to earth from Glo-ry, --
But do you know the Christ of Christ-mas? --
Your Sav-iour and Lord is He?
